Religious Week In Progress at 6 Churches Here

Six Torrance churches are observing "Religious Education Week," instituted by the nationwide United Christian Education Advance. Last night was "The Family at Church Night" at the Methodist, Baptist, Central Evangelical, Christian, Assembly of God and Foursquare Gospel churches.
This afternoon congregations sponsored a reception for Torrance teachers in the Evangelical Church Guild hall and tonight "The Family at Home Night" will be observed.
Tomorrow, Friday, an inter-church youth recreational fellowship gathering at Torrance city park is planned, starting with a picnic dinner at 5 o'clock. Sports and games will be enjoyed until dark by the young people of the cooperating churches.

Sunday is World Wide Communion day in all of the churches and will be the occasion for special sermons. Mayor Tom McGuire recently issued the following proclamation endorsing the week:

Democracy Threatened
"To the People of Torrance: "WHEREAS, the Democracy of America is rooted in self-expression and religious liberty, and in that tolerance of love and freedom which springs from religious ideals; and
"WHEREAS, the Father of Our Country found it as convenient to pray as it was necessary to bear arms; and
"WHEREAS, Democracy is threatened today by aggressors whose religion is hate and destruction; and
"WHEREAS, all people should have the benefit of that consoling religion which is ours;
"NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tom F. McGuire, Mayor of the City of Torrance, California, do hereby proclaim the week beginning Sept. 28 to Oct. 5, 1942, as Religious Education Week in the City of Torrance and urge all citizens and their families to participate in the activities of the church of their choice."
(Signed) MAYOR TOM F. MCGUIRE.
